JEWS PLOT TO MURDER McCARTHY

'Red Hilde' Takes Over Dictatorship Of East Germany

BONN—The uprisings in eastern Germany have forced the rulers of the Kremlin to abandon even the pretense that the East-German satellite government is in gentile hands. We have evidence of this in the appointment of "Red Hilde" Benjamin as Minister of Justice for the Soviet zone. This would indicate the Kremlin's masters have decided on a blood purge as the best means of putting an end to German resistance to the Communist occupation.

Even before her appointment as Minister of Justice, "Red Hilde" had made a name for herself as a "hanging judge" while serving as president of East-Germany's Supreme Court. In her new position she has become the most dreaded official in Soviet occupied Germany.

"Red Hilde" Benjamin has been a devout Communist ever since the abortive "Spartacus Revolution" of 1918. Shortly after the overthrow of the Kaiser, it will be recalled, the Communists (under the leadership of the Jewess, Rosa Luxemberg) staged an abortive revolt against Germany's new provisional government. The attempt failed and

The above clippings are all taken from recent issues of the Communist DAILY PEOPLE'S WORLD. They are indicative of the venomous hate-campaign which the Communist press has carried on against Senator McCarthy for many years. PEOPLE'S WORLD frequently reprints anti-McCarthy cartoons and articles from the so-called "liberal" newspapers . . .

Communists Recruit "Liberals" Into Anti-McCarthy Campaign

WASHINGTON—The Communists have always hated "Fighting Joe" McCarthy, and have never made any secret of it. What is more, they have from time to time managed to enlist a varied assortment of misguided "progressives", fellow travelers, and bleeding-heart liberals into the anti-McCarthy crusade.

It is only to be expected, therefore, that McCarthy's enemies are not only numerous, but influential. They range all the way from Bishop Oxnam to Drew Pearson, and from Herbert Lehman to Eleanor Roosevelt. They all profess to find one common fault with Senator McCarthy: they object to the way he conducts his anti-Communist investigations.

Last month the anti-McCarthyites recruited their most important and influential convert to date, and Joe McCarthy is still reeling from the effect. The newest addition to the ranks of

Jew Cultural Club Is Scene of Plot To Kill McCarthy

WASHINGTON—About six weeks ago, on June 18th, the Associated Press (AP) carried one of the most dramatic stories to come out of Washington in a long time. It told of a face-to-face meeting between Senator McCarthy and a Communist "goon" who had been assigned to assassinate him.

The dramatic meeting occurred when the Communist executioner, a "tough-guy" by the name of Lou Bortz, was called to appear before Senator McCarthy's investigating sub-committee. The committee heard a former FBI counterspy identify Bortz as the individual who had boasted at a secret Communist meeting last Dec. 4th that he had been entrusted with the task of assassinating Senator McCarthy. Further testimony revealed that Bortz had conducted a "school" where fellow Communists were instructed in the use

Russia Still Ruled By Molotov-Kaganovich & Co.

SPECIAL—The sudden and unexpected arrest of Lavrenti P. Beria in Moscow last month set loose a veritable flood of speculation regarding the true identity of Russia's real rulers. What made the situation all the more confusing for many was the fact that Beria, head of Russia's dread secret police, has been widely—though erroneously — regarded as a member of the "triumvirate" which rules Soviet Russia. There was even some speculation that Beria might be the actual dictator of Russia . . .

To readers of the AMERICAN NATIONALIST, however, the arrest of Beria—although coming as a surprise—in no way indicated a drastic change in the Russian leadership. In our March 10th issue we pointed out that a five-man "Presidium of the Council of Ministers," with Malenkov as chairman, had taken over the leadership of Russia at Stalin's death. The four deputy chairmen were: Molotov, Kaganovich, Bulganin, and Beria.

"These," we wrote in our March 10th issue, "are the 'Big Five' of the Communist hierarchy. They probably do not wield equal power. The two senior members of the group, Molotov and Kaganovich, are 'Old Bolsheviks' who were closely associated with Stalin before the Revolution. Kaganovich (a Jew) is also a brother-in-law of Stalin, while Molotov (married to a Jewess) served with Stalin as a co-editor of Pravda previous to 1917. Significantly, Malenkov is the youngest of the 'Big Five', while Beria is but a year older. Both were in their teens at the time of the Revolution, and are regarded as members of the 'New Generation.' Bulganin joined the party in 1917 . . ."

We then summarized our March 10th article on the "Big Five" as follows: "Molotov and Kaganovich, as the only 'Old Bolsheviks' on the Presidium, and because of their close association with Stalin, are undoubtedly the two most powerful men in Soviet Russia; a third or fourth member of the Presidium may or may not share their authority. In either case, Malenkov looks more like a puppet than a Dictator . . ."

Today the "Big Five" has been reduced to the "Big Four." Aside from that, there is little to be added to our analysis of March 10th. In other words, the triumvirate which rules Russia today still appears to be composed of "Old Bolsheviks" Molotov and Kaganovich, and the stooge, Malenkov.

Only one other thing need be mentioned. This has to do with the selection of Malenkov as the junior member of the triumvirate. TIME magazine, shortly after the death of Stalin, revealed that Malenkov had originally been brought to Stalin's attention by Kaganovich. Only last month Drew Pearson, in a different version, claimed that Malenkov . . . "was recommended to Old Joe by Molotov and Kaganovich" . . . These facts, in conjunction with a good many others, would seem to bear out the assumption that Malenkov is the creature of Molotov and Kaganovich . . .

As for Beria's recent fall from grace, we need only point out that his fate is in no way different from that of his predecessors. No head of the Soviet secret police has ever died a natural death. None ever rose to become a dictator, either.

Hollywood

EDWARD G. ROBINSON is currently making his big come-back attempt. "Robinson" has not appeared in a major film role since his flagrant Communist-aiding record became widely known in 1949. Since then he has appeared on the screen only once—in a Ben Hecht production.

Robinson's come-back picture is a United Artists release entitled VICE SQUAD. Starring with him is the Jewess, Paulette Goddard, former wife of Charlie Chaplin.

In VICE SQUAD Robinson plays the part of a tough police officer —a "harness bull". As a matter of fact Robinson was reportedly working on a film entitled HARNESS BULL sometime ago—a fact which was duly noted in the AMERICAN NATIONALIST. However, the film has never made its appearance under that title, and the best guess is that it has been retitled and released as VICE SQUAD.

In any event, the success or failure of VICE SQUAD will to a great extent determine Hollywood's future policy toward actors known to carry the Communist taint. Basically the question hinges on whether or not a known sympathizer for Communist causes can worm his way back into public acceptance at the box-office. If an actor with Robinson's record can make the grade, there is no reason why others cannot make a similar comeback. Larry Parks, for instance, would like to see his name in footlights again; so would scores of other Jewish "liberals" who gaily rode the red bandwagon when it was the popular thing to do . . .

EDWARD G. ROBINSON (GOLDENBERG)

In case you are interested, here are the facts on "Robinson": He was born in Bucharest, Hungary in 1893, is 60 years of age. His real name is not Robinson, but Emmanuel Goldenberg. And although this country has made him rich and famous, he has shown his gratitude and patriotism for America by time and again giving aid and comfort to this nation's enemies. Among his Communist-front affiliations are the following: American Russian Institute . . . Russian War Relief . . . American Committe for the Protection of Foreign Born . . . American Committee for Yugoslav Relief . . . Progressive Citizens of America . . . Civil Rights Congress . . . Committee for First Amendment . . . and others. These are the facts which you should bring to the attention of your neighbors, and your local theater manager, when VICE SQUAD comes to your town . . .

PARAMOUNT has just released another erstwhile "biographical" film, this time entitled HOUDINI. Supposedly the story is based on the life of the Jewish magician, Harry Houdini (real name: Ehrich Weiss), son of a Jewish rabbi. Starring in the picture are Tony Curtis (Jew name: Schwartz) and his wife, Janet Leigh . . .

ROSA LUXEMBERG

Rosa Luxemberg was subsquently executed by German army officers.

From that time to the present, "Red Hilde's" loyalty to the Communist party has been unswerving. When Hitler became Chancellor of Germany in 1933, she fled to Soviet Russia. Her husband, not quite as nimble, was apprehended by German authorities and is said to have died in a German prison camp. . .

The very fact that a Jew, in the person of "Red Hilde", has been placed in charge of carrying out the present blood purge is indicative of the seriousness of the Soviet position in Germany. For the past several years the Communists have been systematically deporting large numbers of East-Germany's male population and replacing them with imported Asiatics. Also, many German families have been terrorized into abandoning their farms and possessions in the Soviet zone.

of weapons and the manufacture of bombs. The Associated Press identified the Communist training school as merely . . . "the basement of a Pittsburgh house".

Despite its obvious news worthiness, the story received little play, and the incident was quickly hushed up. And therein lies the real story. The truth is that the Associated Press identified the Communist training school as only "a basement of a Pittsburgh House" for a very definite reason. Here is the full story:

The mysterious "Pittsburgh house" was in reality the Pittsburgh JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER, situated in the heart of the city's exclusive Squirrel Hill residential district. The Pittsburgh JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER is actually the training school and headquarters for the Communist Party in western Pennsylvania, and it was there that Bortz had boasted of his assignment to assassinate Senator McCarthy. This, of course, explains why the kept press chose to smother what otherwise would have been one of the year's top news stories . . .

There is a sequel to the story, however, and it occurred in Pittsburgh on July 22nd. Armed with a court order, a Pittsburgh attorney by the name of Harry A. Sherman led a raid on the 2½ story greystone building which houses the Pittsburgh JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER. The raid netted a large assortment of Communist propaganda leaflets, mimeographed song sheets in Yiddish, and a collection of Hebrew text books. It was in the basement of this building that "tough-guy" Bortz had set up a target range for the use of Communist Party members, and had given instructions on the manufacture and use of bombs and grenades.

That was the background to the dramatic meeting between Senator McCarthy and the Jew assigned by the Communist Party to assassinate him.

SIGNIFICANCE: Under normal circumstances a Communist plot to assassinate a prominent member of the U. S. Senate would be a front page story for days. The fact that the plot against Senator McCarthy's life involved Jews put a different slant on it, however. The press was obviously reluctant to headline such a story, and this of course also explains why the Associated Press suppressed the fact that the plot against McCarthy involved the Pittsburgh JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER. For a similar reason the kept press failed to report the July raid on the Pittsburgh JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER—although the story was headlined on page one of the PITTSBURGH SUN-TELEGRAPH.

The inescapable fact is that the kept press is afraid to print news revealing the Jewish nature of Communism —even when it involves the life of the most prominent member of the U. S. Senate . . .

Jews Demand New German Blackmail

Want Life Time Pensions For Prison Camp Inmates

BONN—Last year the helpless and prostrate West-German Republic was compelled to submit to one of the most fantastic blackmail operations in modern history. On that occasion the Germans agreed to pay the government of Israel the incredible sum of $715,000,000.00 in "reparations" to defray the cost of settling Jewish immigrants in Israel. Under the same agreement another $107,000,000.00 was paid out to various Jewish international organizations, which brought the total "reparations" to $822,000,000.00.

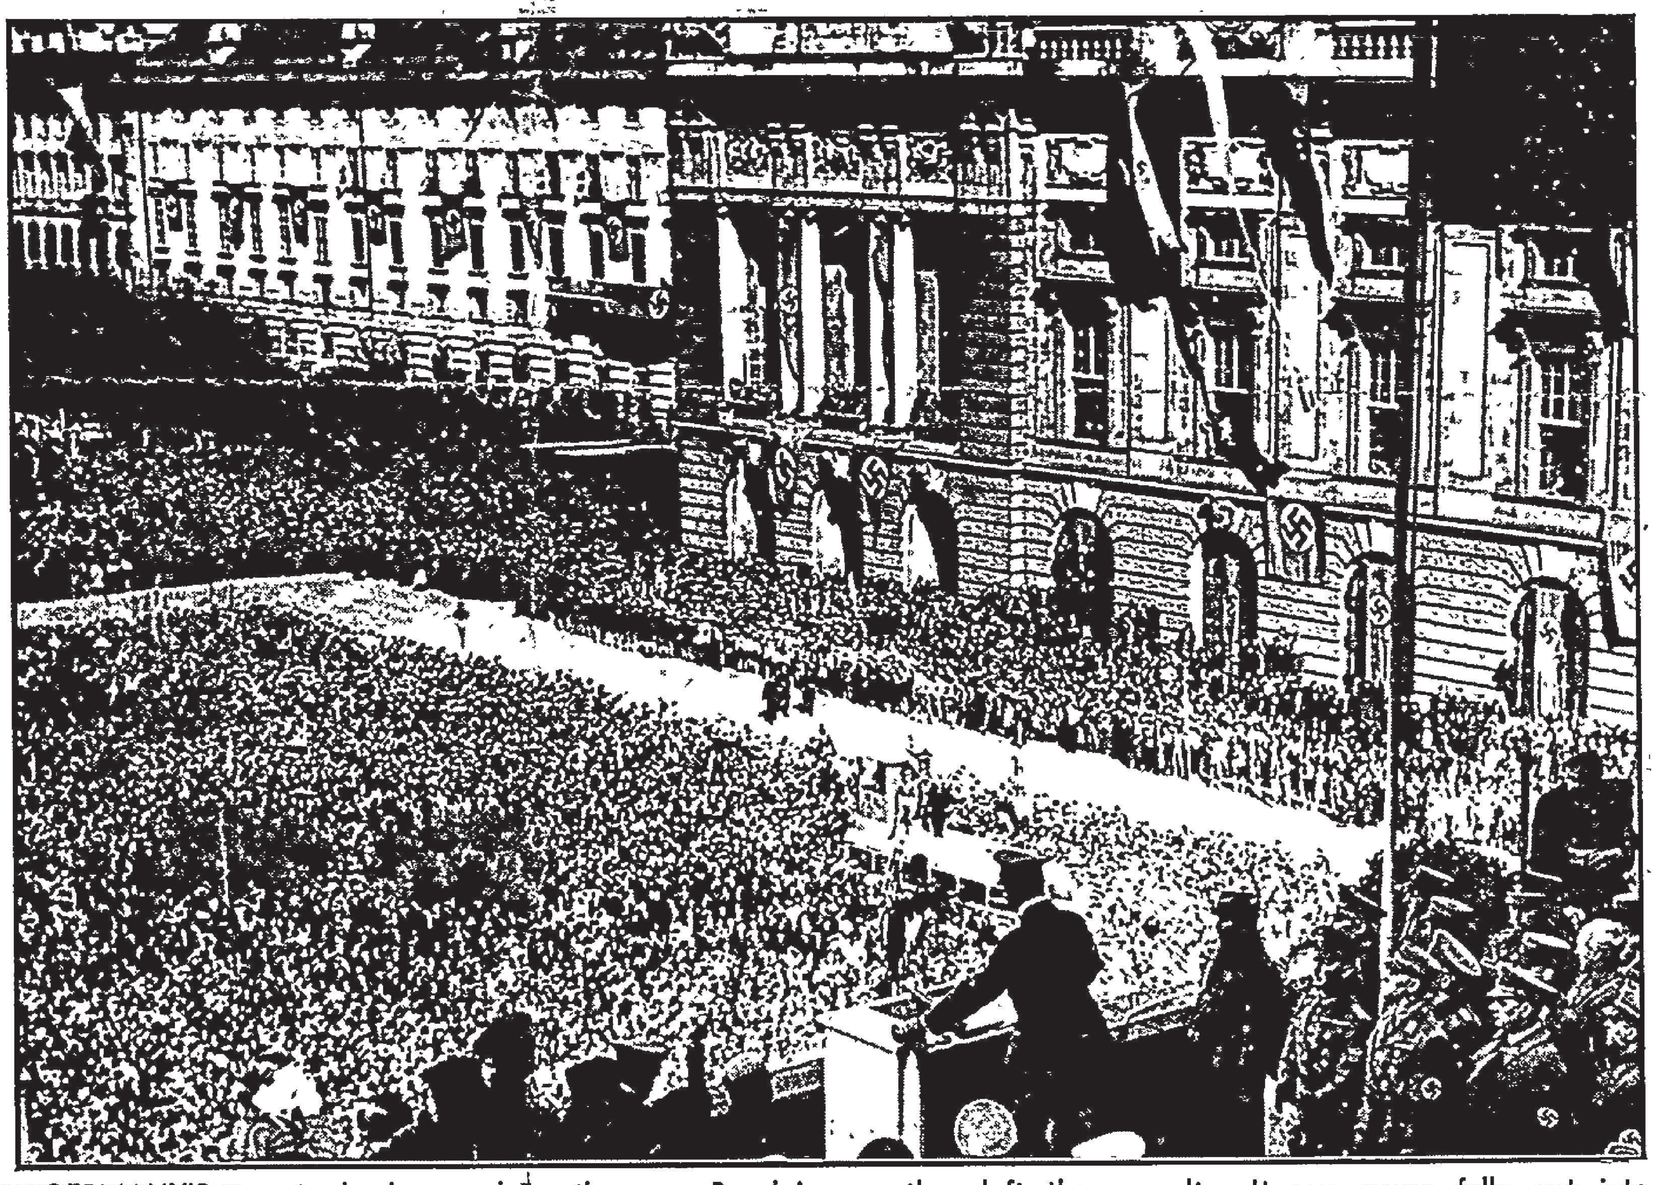

The Israeli "reparations" settlement was imposed on the West-German Republic under the pretense that Germany had FORCED the Jews to take up residence in Israel, and therefore should be compelled to pay for their resettlement there. Overlooked was the fact that the Zionists had been actively planning the settlement of Palestine for generations before the advent of Hitler. Also overlooked was the fact that vast numbers of Israel's Jews came from North Africa, Russia, Asia Minor, and other non-German areas. Neither was any consideration given to the fact that Germany had already made recompense to the German-Jews whose property was seized or destroyed before the war . . .

JEWISH BLACKMAIL

Emboldened by the success of their blackmail activities to date, the Jews are now making additional "restitution" claims against the Germans, who incidentally have ten million refugees of their own to provide for. Under pressure from international Jewish organizations, a bill was introduced into the German Bundstag last month which calls for the payment of $923,000,000.00 to former Jewish inmates of German detention camps. The bill, which is at the moment blocked in the upper house of the German parliament, has already been passed by the lower house.

Under the proposed measure, every Jew who spent time in a German detention camp would be eligible for "compensation". Pensions are to be provided for relatives of those who died in prison, and for former inmates who suffered a "loss of earning power" or a "loss of health". (Presumably Communist-Jews like "Red Hilde" Benjamin would also be eligible for pensions, since her husband died in a German concentration camp during the war).

If the Jews are able to push this latest blackmail measure through the German parliament, they will have collected $1,745,000,000.00 over and above the amounts already paid out in property settlements to individual Jewish claimants. Since the total Jewish population of Germany never exceeded 550,000, simple arithmetic will show that the impoverished Germans are being asked to pay out more than $3,000 for every Jewish man, woman and child who resided in pre-war Germany . . .

GERMANY'S pre-war leaders made two fatal mistakes in their quest for power. Their first mistake, which was to antagonize Jewry, brought Soviet Russia and the United States into a coalition against Germany. No other power on earth, except Jewry, could have brought Soviet Russia and the United States into a "holy crusade" against a common enemy . . .

Their second mistake was to lose the war. By doing so they left the German people at the tender mercy of the Jews. Today Jewish vengeance is being wreaked on the captive German population of the Soviet occupied zone by the bloody Jewess, "Red Hilde" Benjamin, who is currently conducting a blood purge ultimately designed to exterminate the German upper classes.

In West Germany, the Morgenthau Plan was intended to achieve the same result. It was never fully put into effect, however, and the Jews have had to content themselves with extorting vast sums of money in the guise of "reparations" from the helpless and defeated Germans. For example, the parasitic state of Israel, which did not even come into existence until three years after Germany's defeat, has already received $715,000,000.00 in German "reparations".

What is more, these Jewish extortions do not end there. At this moment a Jewish commission headed by Dr. Nahum Goldman is "negotiating" with the Austrian government for $50,000,000.00 in "restitutions" for "damages" allegedly suffered by the Austrian Jews under the German occupation.

AUSTRIANS GALLED

These Jewish "restitution" demands are particularly galling to the Austrians for a number of reasons. Chief among these is the fact that when the Russians occupied Austria in 1945 (Austria is still an occupied country), they immediately seized all German-owned property, including that which had been taken from the Jews. In effect this means that the Austrians are being called upon to compensate the Jews for property which, although first seized by the Germans, is now in the possession of the Russians . . .

Not content with this, the Jewish community of Bavaria last month placed a claim against the Bavarian state on behalf of a group of Jews who were interned in Shanghai during the war. Seems that these particular Jews emigrated from Germany after Hitler came to power, and settled in Shanghai. When the war broke out the Japanese government interned them as enemy aliens. So now the Germans are being called on to compensate these Shanghai Jews for their Japanese internment . . .

UNJUST DEMANDS

Thus, while the U. S. pours billions of dollars into Germany for rehabilitation purposes, the Jews are piping it out again in the form of "reparations" and "restitution payments". Meanwhile, the state of Israel, which evicted almost a million Arabs from their ancestral homes in 1948, has refused to make any compensation whatever for hundreds of millions of dollars worth of confiscated Arab property . . .

SUMMARY: To be seen in their true perspective, these Jewish "reparation" demands against Germany should be considered in conjunction with the Palestine question. Because if it was wrong for the Germans to evict the Jews from Germany previous to World War II, then it was equally wrong for the Jews to evict the Arab population of Palestine from their ancestral homes in 1948. And if the Germans were to blame for confiscating Jewish wealth and property under the Hitler regime, then so are the Jews of Israel to blame for likewise confiscating the property and wealth of Palestine's evicted Arab population. And finally, if the Jews are entitled to "restitution" and "reparations" for their eviction from Germany, and for the loss of their property, then by the same token the Arabs of Palestine are entitled to similar restitution from the state of Israel for similar treatment . . .

The irony of the situation lies in the fact that the Germans, who have already paid out billions of dollars in "reparations" to the Jews, are still universally depicted as inhuman fiends for having mistreated the Jews, while on the other hand Israel's Jews, who have inflicted even greater atrocities against the Arabs, are immune to criticism . . .

Anti-McCarthyites

the anti-McCarthyites was none other than Ike Eisenhower . . .

Eisenhower did not directly attack McCarthy, but teamed up with the McCarthy-hating "National Council of Christians and Jews" in a denunciation clearly aimed at McCarthy's newly appointed assistant, J. B. Matthews.

If there was ever any doubt regarding Eisenhower's attitude toward Senator McCarthy, however, it was dispelled a few days later by the statements of his brother, Arthur Eisenhower: "Senator McCarthy," said Arthur Eisenhower, "is the most dangerous man in America."

"It is a horrible shame," continued Arthur Eisenhower, "that he is a Republican, for he has done the party no good. When I think of McCarthy I automatically think of Hitler". . .

The president's own party, and the Republican press, played down the matter as much as possible. Not so with the left-wing press and radio. Encouraged by the addition of such distinguished and outspoken recruits to their ranks, the anti-McCarthyites stepped up their "Hate McCarthy" campaign to a screaming crescendo. Left-wing propagandists immediately launched a vicious and concerted tirade against J. B. Matthews' alleged "anti-Protestant smear," which appeared in the American Mercury; before they had finished, Senator McCarthy himself was being accused of harboring "anti-Protestant" sentiments.

DREW PEARSON

Drew Pearson, under the pretense of "deploring" the effects of McCarthy's so-called "anti-Protestantism," spitefully made a point of the fact that McCarthy is a Catholic (although he failed to emphasize that Matthews, who wrote the controversial article, is a former Protestant missionary).

So effective was this barrage of hate propaganda that millions of Protestants have been led to believe that McCarthy has actually been conducting an anti-Protestant investigation. Millions are totally unaware of the fact that McCarthy's only fault (if you can call it that) was to hire an assistant who had several months previously (and without McCarthy's knowledge) written an article for the American Mercury in which he had quite truthfully stated that . . . 'the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus in the United States today is composed of Protestant clergymen" . . .

REDS GLOAT

The Communist press, which has been conducting a hate campaign against Senator McCarthy for years (see cut), regarded all this with grim satisfaction. The DAILY PEOPLE'S WORLD recognized as the organ of the Communist Party on the West Coast, was especially jubilant because within the past several months three of its editors have been "victims of McCarthyism" i.e. they have been sentenced to prison or deportation for conspiracy against the United States government.

On July 17th, just a week after Eisenhower pulled the rug from under Senator McCarthy, the PEOPLE'S WORLD expressed its satisfaction over the affair in a front page editorial which began as follows:

"You may have noticed during the past weeks that resistance to McCarthyism has gained in vigor, scope and militancy. We know of no more hopeful symptom of the vitality of the American democratic spirit, and the potential that lies in U. S. resistance to creeping fascism. For us, the rising tide of anti-McCarthyism is a source of special satisfaction . . . "

Thus spoke the Communist publication, PEOPLE'S WORLD.

SIGNIFICANCE: Knowing that they could not effectively oppose Senator McCarthy on the issue of Communism, the anti-McCarthyites have successfully launched a diversionary attack against him which has seriously hindered the functioning of his committee, and which may destroy his effectiveness as an anti-Communist crusader. The bitter irony of the situation lies in the fact that this diversionary attack was put into motion by none other than Ike Eisenhower himself. Eisenhower has in effect spearheaded a left-wing attack against one of the most respected members of his own party.

To many, the question of "McCarthyism" no longer involves Joe McCarthy so much as it does Eisenhower. The real question, as many see it, is whether or not Ike Eisenhower owes his first allegiance to the Republican party, or to the Americans for Democratic Action . . .

Press Report

WASHINGTON—Eisenhower has appointed three new members to a five-man commission whose task it is to conduct a new "survey" of the plan for Universal Military Training (UMT). Among the appointees is Julius Ochs Adler, general manager of the NEW YORK TIMES. Adler, a Jew, is slated to head the commission. There have been reports that Eisenhower has packed the commission to insure a report in favor of UMT. Congress only last year killed a proposed UMT measure . . .

WASHINGTON—The state of Israel is scheduled to receive approximately $65,000,000.00 from the U. S. treasury during the coming year. The funds will be paid out through the Mutual Security Agency (MSA) as part of the five billion dollar foreign aid program for 1954 . . .

COPENHAGEN—Last month Janet Rosenberg Jagan, Jewish deputy-speaker of British Guiana's Communist government, trekked off to Copenhagen as Guiana's first representative to the Communist-sponsored "World Congress for Women". Janet Rosenberg, whose husband is the titular head of Guiana's red "People's Progressive Party", has been described as the actual brains of the party. The Communists control 18 out of 24 seats in Guiana's Parliament, thus giving the Western hemisphere its first Communist regime in history . . .

MOSCOW—The Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) reports in a dispatch from London that Professor M. S. Vovsy, one of the nine Jewish doctors arrested in the "anti-Zionist purge" last year, has been appointed to a high position in the Soviet's "Ministry of Health". All the Jewish doctors arrested in the abortive purge have been released and the officials responsible for their incarceration have been punished.

SPECIAL — The Communist publication, JEWISH LIFE, devoted thirteen out of thirty-two pages of its July issue to an article entitled: McCARTHY AND ANTI-SEMITISM. The article "documents" the alleged connection between Senator McCarthy and various "anti-Semitic" editors and publishers.

YUGOSLAVIA—The pilgrimage of the faithful to Communist Yugoslavia continues to make the news. First to visit Comrade Tito was former presidential candidate, Adlai Stevenson. He was followed in short order by Eleanor Roosevelt, who assured the readers of her syndicated column that . . . "Yugoslavia . . . is an experiment and one that may have great meaning for the world if the main objectives remain freedom and democracy within the framework of their type of socialism. No one here likes the experiment to be called 'communism' . . . " (P.S. The latest report is that Clement (comrade) Attlee plans to spend three weeks, beginning Aug. 1st, as Tito's guest).

Reports from there (see American Nationalist, Feb. 25) indicate that two million Chinese peasants have already been settled on farms and in communities previously occupied by Germans. The situation has become so grave that last February Chancellor Konrad Adenauer broadcast a personal plea to the East-Germans to stay put unless faced with immediate peril. Said Adenauer: " . . . I must explain that when hundreds of thousands flee, hundreds of thousands of others take their places, and they may be Russians or Asiatics. Every German who remains defends a piece of Germany, and a piece of the Western World."

This policy of deliberately depleting Germany's male population, while at the same time settling entire colonies of Asiatics on German soil, is of course calculated to eventually bring about the extermination of the Germans as a nation and as a people.

The progress is relatively slow, however, and the present condition of revolt calls for more immediate and extreme measures. The puppet German leaders have shown their inability, and even their unwillingness, to cope with the situation. This undoubtedly explains the Soviet's decision to install "Red Hilde" as Minister of Justice. Her task is to destroy every vestige of resistance to the Communist occupation. This will undoubtedly call for the immediate extermination of the German upper classes, particularly the army officers, the clergy, the land and factory owners, and others of similar station. That has been the pattern in Lithuania, in Latvia, and in Russia itself, and there is no reason to believe Germany will fare better.

It is only natural, therefore, that the Jewish masters of the Kremlin would entrust another Jew with this bloody task. After all, who is better qualified for the job than "Red Hilde" Benjamin? . . .
